

handed woman with past history notable ome who presented on with respiratory fatigue she had travelled ad noticed increased shortness of antibiotics because of her respiratory status her condition slightly improved but the with the patient s primary neurologist dr of her family including the sures only the family was present table with ativan and morphine and care providers were notified